

Food Adulteration” stall at Suttur Jathra:

Division of Nutrition & Dietetics, DWH-FLS, JSS AHER, Mysuru exhibited a stall on “Food Adulteration” at Suttur Jathra 2019, during 1st February to 6th February 2019. Faculty (Dr.P. Vanitha Reddy, Dr.B.V. Sushma , Dr.H.E. Shweatha and Dr Sudha Sairam), Research Scholars, students of both UG and PG and non-teaching staff were involved in the preparation of the stall.

During the exhibition-

- The mode of adulteration, adulterants added and how to detect the added adulterants of different food groups such as milk and milk products, cereals and pulses, oils and fats, sugar and sugar products, spices, processed foods were demonstrated live to the visitors.
- Awareness about health hazards (such as cancer, lungs disease,, heart disease, renal etc.) of the adulterants, non-permitted food colours, preservatives, pesticides, regular intake of carbonated beverages and intake of foods prepared by using oil repeatedly fried.

Division of Nutrition and Dietetics stall at Suttur Jatra

Students demonstrating to visitors at the stall