

Report on A two days National seminar on “Pharmaceutical Approach for Malarial Targeting and Resistance”-Malaria-2014

The inaugural function of a two days National seminar on “Pharmaceutical Approach for Malarial Targeting and Resistance” being organized by Department of Pharmaceutics, J.S.S. College of Pharmacy (off campus JSS University, Mysore), Udhagamandalam and associated with University of Hyderabad was held from 14-15th February, 2014. This two days National seminar was sponsored by Indian council of Medical Research, New Delhi and JSS University Mysore.

The main highlighted of this seminar was E-Poster presentation which was initiated first time in India and highly appreciated

Scientists from National Institute of Malaria, New Delhi, Hyderabad University, Hyderabad, Kuvembu University, Shomoga and JSS University, Mysore delivered the lectures on recent trends in malarial research.

More than 200 delegates from all over India participated in this seminar.

Inauguration of the Seminar

Guests and Speakers

E-Poster Presentation

Delegates