

Report on Guest Lecture on Heart Failure & Chronic Kidney Disease

The Department of Pharmacy Practice organized a guest lecture on Heart Failure & Chronic kidney Disease on 11th February 2023 for the benefit of Pharm.D and M. Pharm (Pharmacy Practice) students. Dr. Ronald Castelino, Senior Lecturer in Pharmacology & Clinical Pharmacy, Faculty of Medicine and Health, University of Sydney, Australia a case-based discussion on “Heart Failure & Chronic kidney Disease Dr. Ronald Castelino, Senior Lecturer in Pharmacology & Clinical Pharmacy, Faculty of Medicine and Health, University of Sydney AND Renal Pharmacist, Blacktown Hospital, NSW, Australia was the speaker. The lecture was organized with the objective to enhance the students’ learning experience on management of Heart Failure & Chronic Kidney Disease through case based approach.

Dr. Ronald was formally welcomed and introduced to the attendees by Dr. Savitha R S, Associate Professor & Head, Department of Pharmacy Practice, JSSCP, Mysuru. He started his lecture by explaining the learning outcomes of the lecture and also the pharmacist responsibilities in the management of Heart Failure & Chronic Kidney Disease. Also, the speaker explained the difference in modalities adopted at Australia and at Indian setup. Students were provided the opportunity to ask questions related to acute kidney disease, which speaker answered. A total of 60 students of fourth & fifth & year PharmD and I & II M. Pharm Pharmacy Practice students attended the guest lecture. As it was an interactive session, students actively participated in the discussion.

Dr. Ronald Castelino during lecture

Dr. R S Savitha, Head, Dept. Pharmacy Practice thanking Dr. Ronald Castelino