

THE World University Rankings by Subject 2022

JSS Academy of Higher Education & Research has ranked into the top 100 in clinical and health studies of the Times Higher Education World University Rankings by Subject-2022.

THE's rankings of 1,523 universities in 98 countries as per the quality of education provided in clinical and health, life sciences, physical sciences and psychology were released on 16.09.2021. JSS Academy of Higher Education & Research bagged the 93rd position in this ranking globally and 1st in India.

IISC-Bangalore enters the list of top 200 in life sciences and 300 in physical sciences.

The other Indian university in the top 400 in a pool of 925 institutions is Manipal Academy of Higher Education in the 301-400 group.

Globally, four countries and regions are home to the top 10 universities for clinical and health studies. The UK and US have claimed four places each, with the UK's University of Oxford retaining top spot for the eleventh consecutive year and Harvard University in the US holding onto second place.